This article presents the consequences of a certain treaty of cooperation between the Federal Republic of Germany and France, signed in 1963. The cultural consequences of the treaty are the main concerns of the author, regarding the teaching of the language of the other, the equivalence of the exams and of the diplomas, the scientific cooperation, and so on.

Keywords: international relations, cultural exchanges, Franco-German cooperation