MARRIAGE PROJECT OF PRINCE CAROL II
WITH ONE OF TSAR NICHOLAS II’S DAUGHTERS
(Summary)

Keywords: Project of marriage, diplomatical report, problems of the Royal Court, secret alliance, conventions, change of front.

One year before WWI a project of marriage caught the attention of the European governments: a possible marriage of prince Carol of Romania with one of the tsars Nicolas’ II daughters. The heir prince Ferdinand’s letters and the diplomatical reports of Austro-Hungarian plenipotentiary Count Czernin are witnesses for this project. The marriage has never realized but this have no influence upon the separation of Romania from the secret alliance with the Central Powers.
