

CONTENTS

Introduction (Alex Drace-Francis) .....	1
Historians' Conference Bucharest, 7-11 April 2003 (Dennis Deletant) .....	3
Changes in the Social Roles of Western Anthropologists and Indigenous Ethnologists (Ger Duijzings) .....	9
Writing the Past: Communism and the Romanian Orthodox Church (Bogdan Moşneagu) .....	14
Some Remarks Regarding the Equation "Production – Dissemination – Reception" of History in Post-Communist Romania (Constantin Ardeleanu) .....	19
Crisis? What crisis? British Socialist Historians and the Ups and Downs of Writing Social History (Heather Williams) .....	25
Talking about Redundant Issues such as Theory of History (Snezhana Dimitrova) .	31
Serbian Historiography and the Society in the 1980s (Ranka Gasić) .....	53
The Reception of the Historical Knowledge: the Case of Macedonia (Irena Stefoska) .....	58
Touchy Issues. Historians, Expectations and Conflicting Histories in Post-Socialist Romania (Levente Szabó) .....	64
Historical Agency in a World of Consumers: Simon Schama and the Hamburger of History (Tim Hitchcock) .....	82
Politics, Historiography and the Historical Imagination: Perspectives from India (Benjamin Zachariah) .....	96
The Securitate Files from a Cultural History Perspective (Andi Mihalache) .....	105